

Help out at Christmas

www.homelessvoice.org/christmas

For many homeless people, Christmas Day is just another day with little food or shelter. Without our volunteers, the wonderful taste of a holiday dinner wouldn't be possible for the homeless. Help feed the homeless on Christmas Day at the Homeless Shelter to ensure the spirit and tradition of the holiday is shared with the less fortunate.

Here is the meal schedule for Christmas Day. Be a volunteer – come and leave at whatever time is convenient for you.

Serve Christmas Dinner 2pm – 4pm (First Meal)

Serve Christmas Dinner 4pm – 6pm (Second Meal)

Alex Jones volunteered for the Feed the Homeless Christmas Day Dinner in Great Britain. Imagine you are Alex Jones – but placed in the Faroe Islands. Write an introduction or preface (200-250 words) about your thoughts on this subject. You may write it as a diary entry or an article, if you wish to do so.
