

English essay – to be delivered on Tuesday 12th of February by email to: peter.hentze.niclasen@skulin.fo

Subject A

School in the USA

Photo: Opgavekommissionen

How exciting! You and your family recently moved to the USA, and you have just finished the first week at your new school there.

Here is your school timetable:

Timetable – Spring semester

Lessons	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
8.30-9.30	Math Room 243	Tests Auditorium	Geoscience Lab2	Design Technology Workshop 282	Drama Stage 1
9.30-10.30	Math Room 243	Tests Auditorium	Geoscience Lab2	Design Technology Workshop 282	Drama Stage 1
break
10.45-11.45	Math Room 243	Spanish Room 324	English Room 251	Psychology Room 282	English Room 251
lunch
12.15-13.15	P.E. Sport 2	Spanish Room 324	English Room 251	Mythology Room 284	English Class 251
13.15-14.15	P.E. Sport 2	Public speaking Room 322	Chemistry Lab1	Biology Lab3	Study Hall
14.15-15.15	P.E. Sport 2	Public speaking Room 322	Chemistry Lab1	Biology Lab3	Study Hall
break
15.30-16.30	Clubs	Clubs	Clubs	Clubs

Task:

You are to write an email to your English teacher in the Faroe Islands about your experiences at the new school.

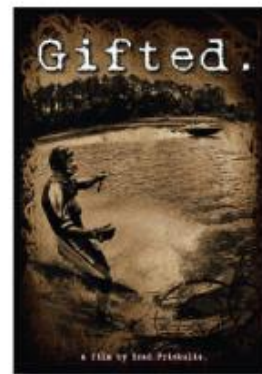

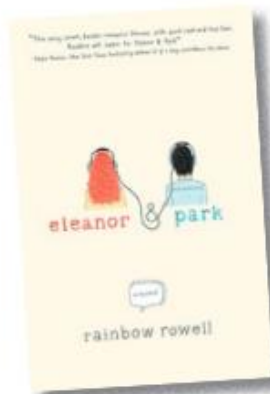

Include:

- What the school environment is like
- What you find surprising and different
- Your feelings and impressions
- An interesting episode from your first week

Subject B

What a Character!

Do you watch films or TV series or read books that take place in an English-speaking setting? You probably have some favourites and some favourite characters. Choose a character you think is particularly interesting to write about. Here are some titles which may inspire you.

Task:

Write an entry for a youth magazine ABOUT YOUR FAVOURITE CHARACTER from an English-speaking setting.

Include:

- The name of the character and the title of the book, film or series
- A short description of the character – appearance and personality
- A description of the environment in which your character lives
- The character's role in the storyline
- Why this character appeals to you